

Checklist for Declaring a Leadership Studies Minor

- You need to DECLARE a major and have earned over 45 credit hours before you declare a minor.
- EVALUATE your current academic standing. Students may pursue a minor only if the requirements for that minor can be completed without extending the anticipated graduation date.
- If your academic standing allows for you to declare a minor and you have sincere interest in exploring and/or declaring a Leadership Studies minor, please set up a MEETING WITH YOUR ACADEMIC ADVISOR. The purpose of this meeting is to COMPLETE the Undergraduate Major/Minor Change Form.
- GATHER information about the minor at www.fau.edu/leadandserve, or contact leadership@fau.edu.

F. A. Q.

WHAT IS THE LEADERSHIP STUDIES MINOR?

The Leadership Studies minor is a stimulating, 16-credit interdisciplinary program that deepens students' understanding of leadership while giving them hands-on opportunities for dynamic leader development.

DO I HAVE TO HOLD A LEADERSHIP POSITION ON-CAMPUS TO TAKE THE COURSES?

Great question; however, the answer is no! These classes will inspire you to realize your leadership potential and equip you with knowledge for working with others and leading our world.

Why You Should Declare a Leadership Studies Minor

- Enhance leadership skills that employers want!
- The courses are interactive & engaging!
